Central Living

The warmth of the home is apparent even from the front porch as you enter the entrance hall. Views of the established front garden abound through the large windows in the lounge room which features a lovely polished floorboard. The open plan kitchen/meals area is good-size and functional condition. Comprising 3 bedrooms, all are generous in size with 2 having built in robes. The huge undercover entertaining at the rear is cleverly designed to capture the warming rays of the winters sunlight yet protect you from the summer sun, there is a very large shed offering Fort Knox's storage .
