ERSKINEILLE - HOUSE

Phone enquiry code for this property: 1427

This is a Victorian two storey terrace house with modern eat in kitchen, complete with full stove and washing machine. The kitchen which is on the second level, leads out through double french doors to a wrap around balcony complete with wrought iron and carriage lights.

Downstairs is the main bedroom which is very large, private and well lit with natural light. Upstairs is another room which can be used as a second bedroom or lounge which also leads out onto the wrap around balcony. There is a third room which is also used as a bedroom but as there is no natural lighting cannot be advertised as such.

There is ample storage area with a third room which could be converted into a dressing room or storage room All have been recently carpeted with the modern bathroom being recently tiled all in very good condition.

The property is partially furnished, with single bed, kitchen table and chairs, fridge washing machine.

The lively cafe scene is within walking distance as is both Newtown and Erskineville Railway station.
