Located in the heart of cosmopolitan Carlton is an excellent two bedroom apartment that has all the creature comforts you could possibly need! Conveniently located near Lygon Street, Rathdowne Village, just moments from Melbourne's major university and hospital precincts and close to public transport, this fantastic property has been well maintained and is a real surprise package!

The apartment features a spacious lounge/dining area with adjoining private balcony feels extremely homely and comfortable, split-system air-conditioning and heating to make summer and winter months easy-breezy, plus a separate kitchen with gorgeous period finishes and lots of cupboard space completes the package. The bedrooms are complete with built-in robes. The bathroom has the luxury of a bath plus a shower, separate toilet and its own laundry space.

Property is 76sqm in size.

Additional features include a secure, off-street undercover car space, lots of natural light, and dual access from both Cardigan and Lygon Streets.
