Two Bedroom Art Deco Delight

This stately art deco building delivers a unique lifestyle experience as its solid construction, garden setting and generous floor plan gives you the space for idyllic leisure and good times. The formal entry and solid timber floors lead you to an expansive living room with an ornamental fireplace & panel heater which is large enough for living and dining whilst the kitchen features a secondary casual meals space with built in bench seat, gas cooking, oven, dishwasher & washing machine. The main bedroom offers built in robes and allows room for additional sitting or study space, a second bedroom with a free-standing robe and a renovated central bathroom with a separate shower recess, toilet, vanity & eye level storage. Completing this flawless St Kilda picture, this apartment offers a single lock up garage which is perfect for storage or securing your car. Within close proximity to Barkly Street and is an easy stroll to Fitzroy Street, Albert Park, cafes, restaurants and public transport options.
